

〔 I 〕 The Great Physicists from Galileo to Einstein: Let Newton Be!

〔設問 1〕 Which one of the following is closest in meaning to (1)?

C. learning slowly

〔設問 2〕 What two events made Newton become victorious against (2)?

his victory in the battles of the physical front and intelligence

〔設問 3〕 Which one of the following is closest in meaning to (3)?

E. us today

〔設問 4〕 Regarding (4), what finally happened to Newton's ideas?

The full account of his ideas was published much later in his life.

〔設問 5〕 Regarding (5), choose the phrase from the paragraph to describe Newton's character as a researcher.

the absent-minded professor

〔設問 6〕 Which one of the following is closest in meaning to (6)?

C. unfriendly

〔設問 7〕 Order the following statements to complete a timeline of Isaac Newton's life.

(A) → (E) → (C) → (D) → (B)

[II] True Style: The History & Principle of Classic Menswear, Business Attire

〔設問 1〕 Choose one of the following to complete the paraphrase of (1).

() has the time or stamina to dig deeper into the people we meet for a quick business lunch.

C. No one

〔設問 2〕 Which phrase in paragraph 2 reflects people's attitude towards their private and public sense of dress?

a clear, cut-and-dried way of dealing with such imponderables

〔設問 3〕 Regarding (2), what is this opinion about?

It is about why people wear clothes at all.

〔設問 4〕 What do (3a) and (3b) refer to?

the latter (3a): people trying to stop them

the former (3b): people dressing above their level in life

〔設問 5〕 In today's world, which one of the following styles is popular when considering office staff clothing?

D. comfortable

〔設問 6〕 Which one of the following is closest to the author's message of (4)?

A. It is dangerous not to be aware of how we dress.